No shots were fired.

REVIVAL CLOSED AT THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

The revival which has been in progress at the First Christian church for the past two weeks closed last night, after a most profitable season. As a result of the recent series of meetings, some twenty-five members have been added, and the church otherwise benefited. Rev. F. G. Tyrrell left for his home in St. Louis today. There was much regret felt that he could not remain over Sunday, but he was compelled to return to his own charge. Mr. Tyrrell preached some fine sermons while here, and made many friends, who will see him return with pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williamson of Waverly, Ill., who have had the singing of the meeting in charge, will remain over Sunday and conduct the singing. They go from here to Metropolis, to assist in a meeting there. Mr. Tyrrell's sermon last night was on "The Motives Constraining One to a Christian Life," and his text was Acts xxvi:28—"Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian." Under the four heads, honesty, gratitude, fear and love, he presented his points very forcibly, and was listened to by an interested congregation.

THE WEATHER.
Fair weather tonight and Sunday.

TRIAL BY COURT MARTIAL.

Manila, March 22.—The court martial appointed to try Major Littleton T. Waller and Lieut. John H. Hay of the Marine Corps, on the charge of executing natives of the island of Samar without trial, after receiving a communication from General Chaffee decided that it had jurisdiction in the case and proceeded to try the accused officers.

Major Waller pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder, but admitted that eleven men had been killed.

Captain Robert H. Dunlap of the Marine Corps testified that he received information from Lieutenant Gridley and Sergeant Quick regarding the arrival at Cargadores of prisoners who, while on the march across the island, ate roots and parts of plants, and refused to assist the marines by giving them similar food. He reported the facts to Major Waller, who was lying in a cot, who ordered Lieutenant Day to take the prisoners and have them shot.

The witness said Major Waller was not excited, and had personally ordered that the men should be shot.

Captain Arthur T. Marx, Marine Corps, representing Major Waller, objected to the testimony of Dr. Love, regarding the sanity of Major Waller at the time, claiming that his fitness for duty was a matter for the defense alone. He conceded that Major Waller gave the orders while in his right sense.

GEN. MILES TO BE RETIRED.

Washington, March 22.—At the cabinet meeting yesterday afternoon the publications relating to the statements made by General Miles before the senate committee were brought up, but consideration of them was postponed until all the facts in the matter became known. Whatever intentions the President had with respect to the treatment to be accorded General Miles, his future action will be somewhat influenced by the fact that General Miles' statement before the senate committee has been represented to him as being privileged. The President proposes to read the testimony given at the hearing and to consult with different members of the committee on military affairs before finally announcing what he proposes to do. It is significant that long after the cabinet meeting adjourned Secretary Root and the attorney general were closeted with the President. The President is known to have stated that he was tired of the friction in the army, and whether it is decided that General Miles' statement was privileged or not, he will, at no distant date, take action looking to his retirement.

A NEW ASSISTANT.

DR. BIGGER, OF LOUISVILLE, TO ACCEPT A PLACE AT THE HOSPITAL.

Mr. F. E. Kimbley, of the local Illinois Central hospital, the druggist who has been acting in the place of Dr. Wilson who left for Newport several weeks ago to establish a practice there, will return home to Louisville next week and Dr. Bigger, of the Louisville college of medicine, will succeed him.

Dr. Bigger will arrive in the city on the 25th to take charge of the position.

CAPT. FERGUSON DEAD.

Captain Ferguson, aged 75, once a prominent river man, and who was on the river years ago with Captain Joe Fowler, died and was buried at Smithland today. He was taken with pneumonia a few days ago, and mention of his precarious illness was made yesterday. He had lived in retirement for several years.

THAT HATCHET STORY AGAIN.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD.

Clearings this week, $539,449. Same week last year, $445,689. Increase, $93,760.

Wholesale trade the past week has been excellent in most every line. The dry goods people had splendid trade, the grocers report heavy shipments and the commission houses have had good business. With some good weather now every line of business, from indications, will have a rush.

Retail trade with the dry goods stores is good. It is too early however for a big Easter trade and no one is expecting it. The milliners had their openings the past week and the shoppers were out in force.

The hardware stores and saddleries and harness men had all the business they could handle this week. A good many farmers were in and all bought of these goods very liberally.

Tobacco has continued to come in freely and the prices brought hold well. The farmers, however, aside from light hardware and harness goods, are buying very little.

The furniture and housefurnishing stores report good numbers of shoppers looking around with some trading but the season too early for much trade.

Builders got in a few days work this week and are only waiting the breaking up of the bad weather to put on big forces. From indications there will be much building and improving this spring and one satisfying feature is that a good deal of it will be below Third street.

GIVEN A HOME.

MR. RUTLEDGE AGREES TO TAKE A DESERTED BOY.

Rev. R. W. Chiles has secured a home for the little boy Hester Keller, whose mother recently died here and whose father had deserted him. Mr. Wm. Rutledge of 423 Adams street, the general agent of the Standard Tie company, just located here, has agreed to take the little fellow as one of his own family. The lad is between 7 and 8 years of age, and is said to be very bright and promising.

ACCEPTS ANOTHER POSITION.

Mr. Douglas Nash, a bookkeeper in the office of the master mechanic of the local Illinois Central, has resigned his position with the road effective this morning and has gone with the Baker and Eccles grocery company. His successor at the railroad has not yet been named.

Editor Jim Lemon of the Mayfield Messenger arrived at noon today to spend Sunday.

ALLEGED BOOTLEGGING.

JOE DOCKENS OF HICKMAN BROUGHT HERE TODAY.

He is charged with selling whiskey without a license, and will be given a trial before Commissioner Armour Gardner this afternoon. All the witnesses are here, having been brought with the prisoner.

ANOTHER TELEPHONE LINE.

It is announced that Postmaster Starks, at Hardin, Marshall county, is organizing a company to construct a telephone line from Paris, Tenn., to Paducah, also touching at Hazel, Hardin, Murray and Benton. The Cumberland, it is said, contemplated building the line, but has never taken any steps to do it.

Mr. A. C. Einstein of St. Louis is in the city to accompany home his wife and child Monday.

NEWS OF THE LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

Frankfort, Ky., March 22.—Governor Beckham yesterday affixed his name to 26 bills, among which was the bill transferring Paducah from the third to the second class. He has not yet vetoed any bill, but it is believed he will veto the anti-docking bill, and will approve the investment company bill, which it was at first thought he would disapprove. The Paducah bill was signed late yesterday afternoon.

Other bills signed were: The bill authorizing the Louisville school board to adopt the kindergarten as a part of the system of public schools of that city.

The bill providing for the taking of the school census of the city of Louisville once in three years, instead of annually.

Senate bill 65—Fixing penalty for failure of county superintendents to notify scholars of provisions of A. and M. college law.

Senate bill 145—An act authorizing the legal voters of a county to vote a school tax for the purpose of extending the terms of common schools. Offered by Senator Byron.

House bill 35—The Klair bill, taking from women in cities of the second class the right to vote in school elections.

House bill 55—Relating to the assessment and collection of school taxes in cities of fifth and sixth classes.

CUTS NO ICE.

The Cumberland Will Build a Long Distance Line From Paris.

The Work Will Begin This Spring or Summer, According To Supt. Joynes.

Manager A. L. Joynes, of the East Tennessee Telephone company, was seen this morning in regard to the statement that citizens in Marshall county were organizing a company to build a long distance line from Paris, Tenn., to Paducah.

The Cumberland company, which operates the East Tennessee, has a line surveyed from Paris to Paducah, and will build it, no matter whether there is established another line or not.

Manager Joynes stated this morning that work would begin in spring or early summer. The great damage to the company's systems in several places has set them back in a great deal of work of improvement contemplated, but they will do it all as soon as they can get to it.

TOMORROW PALM SUNDAY.

NEXT WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED AS HOLY WEEK.

Tomorrow is Palm Sunday, and will be appropriately observed in the Catholic and Episcopal churches as a day of rejoicing, commemorating Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem. Next week is Holy Week, and the two days especially observed are Holy Thursday and Good Friday. It is a week of special fasting and prayer, and closes the Lenten season, Easter being Sunday week.

PAPERS SERVED.

ATTORNEYS BERRY AND REED EMPLOYED TO DEFEND CAPTAIN DUTT.

Captain E. R. Dutt, the tie man, who was yesterday sued by Annie Langston, horsekeeper at the Palmer, for $5,000 for alleged slander, left for Jopka today. The processes were served on him last evening, and he has employed Attorneys Berry and Reed to defend the suit.

Y. M. C. A. work in the state will make rapid strides during the coming year if the plans outlined at the annual meeting of the executive committee of the state Y. M. C. A., held at Louisville, are fulfilled. The first business considered was the report of the committee on state finances, made by Messrs. Rice and Nunemacher. A detailed statement of the financial condition of the state organization showed it to be unusually prosperous. The report also included a plan for securing a partial endowment for the state work.

The reports of the committees on religious work and county work were submitted by Mr. Stoll. The county organization is a comparatively new thing in Y. M. C. A. work. Since it was inaugurated two years ago five county organizations have been perfected. They are Muhlenburg, Mercer, Shelby, Madison and Hopkins.

Mr. Burton, who submitted the report of the committee on student work, gave an interesting summary of this feature of Y. M. C. A. extension. During the year six new college associations have been organized at the following institutions: Asbury college, Wilmore, Ky.; S. P. Goes' collegiate institute, Jackson, Ky.; Harris institute, Pineville, Ky.; South Kentucky college, Hopkinsville, Ky.; University of Louisville, Louisville Medical college.

The general officers of the committee were re-elected as follows: Chairman, James Edward Hardy; vice chairman, John L. Wheat; recording secretary, George L. Burton; treasurer, Val P. Collins; also the following executive officers: State secretary, Henry E. Rosevear; assistant state secretary, F. J. Michel; secretary of student department, W. W. Brockman; secretary of county work department, John Lake.

For the coming year's state work, a budget of $9,500 was voted. Of this amount, $3,000 was secured at the recent state convention at Paducah, leaving $6,500 to be provided by subscriptions from friends throughout the state.

There are fifty-four association in Kentucky, and thirty-eight men devoting their entire time to the work in the state. The state committee employs four traveling secretaries. In each of these particulars there has been a decided advance during the past year.

The following committee has been appointed by President D. M. Flournoy to assist Mr. George T. Houser in the canvass for funds to erect the Y. M. C. A. home. Mr. Houser has just finished his work in Lexington and will be here soon to take up the work here. He is an experienced man in this work, and success is certain with his aid and the work of the local committee, Messrs. B. H. Scott, Samuel T. Hubbard, W. J. Hills, George Thompson, George Langstaff, S. B. Caldwell, Sr., J. Andy Bauer, George Rock, George C. Wallace, Louis M. Eike, Sr., Hammond H. Loving, Edward P. Noble, James A. Rudy, Geo. H. Powell, Lewis L. Bebout, R. Ed Ashbrook, W. Armour Gardner, M. B. Nash, Sr., J. Dennis Mcquon, E. W. Bockmon, H. P. Sights, E. W. Smith, C. H. Sherrill, Charles Q. C. Leigh and D. M. Flournoy.

There will be a "gym" class tonight for regular practice and drill work.

Tomorrow afternoon the young men's bible class of the local Y. M. C. A. will meet at the association for regular class work. There will be a boys' meeting held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, but as yet no speaker has been selected.

Mrs. Geo. Richstein leaves tomorrow for Cairo, where she will spend several weeks with her mother.

A Heavy Thunder Storm Amid a

Was Most Remarkable—Big Towboats
With Large Tows Come
This Way.

NEWS OF THE BOATS AND RIVERS.

Captain Mark Cole, who arrived day before yesterday from Obion river with the Maude Kilgore, states that on the 14th of February he witnessed the most remarkable phenomenon in his whole career. The boat was just entering the mouth of the river, which is about 135 miles below Memphis, when a heavy snowstorm came up. There was at the same time a most severe thunder storm. The lightning was blinding and the peals of thunder rolled and reverberated with all the fury of a summer's day. All this time the snow was falling so fast that you could not see in front of you. It was not a brief storm, either, lasting six hours, during which time the thunder and lightning never ceased, and seven inches of snow fell.

Captain Cole has been on the river for a great many years, and has been in many parts of the country and seen many strange things, but declares he never saw anything like the above.

The big W. W. O'Neal passed down this morning at 8 o'clock for New Orleans with twenty-seven pieces, and at Cairo will take on the tow of the Fallis, which will give her forty-one pieces for the Mississippi river, the largest tow of its kind she ever handled. A portion of it is steel, which makes it difficult to handle.

The Sam Clark is on her way down with forty-one pieces for Mississippi river; also one of the largest tows ever taken out of the river. The boats have to take out these tows, as it is expected that the present stage will disappear all of a sudden.

For the first time in many months the entire fleet of towboats owned by the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Co. is away from Pittsburgh. The last of the towboats left yesterday, and the other boats are on their way down to river point or coming back to Pittsburgh. The Raymond Horner was the last boat sent out, having from safe harbor seventeen boats and three barges.

Captain H. B. Baker of the Ayer and Lord Tie company returned to the city this morning after a business trip to Fulton yesterday. He went down to arrange for the work of the steamer Russell Lord on the Mississippi river. The boat will not be out of the Tennessee river until Tuesday, and will then go to the Mississippi river.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 33.7, on the gauge. Wind northeast, light breeze. Weather clearing and cooler. Rainfall, last 24 hours, 0.20 inches. Temperature 42.

Pell, Observer.

The Thos. Parker did not get away yesterday, as was expected, but will leave today for Cumberland river to take out ties for the Moss Tie company.

Mr. William South left this morning for Jopka to take charge of two fleets there.

The towboat Fallis passed down last evening with a big tow for the south.

The Tennessee leaves this afternoon at 5 o'clock for Tennessee river.

The Maude Kilgore will leave today for Tennessee river for ties.

The following is the official river report for today: All points show a fall.

ORGANIZES MONDAY.

The Knights of the Golden Horse-shoe will be organized Monday evening at Elks' hall by Mr. J. W. Husted, deputy organizer, with a large charter membership. It will be Paducah's latest social and benevolent organization, and many have signed to join. There will be fourteen officers elected and installed, and refreshments will be served. Rev. G. W. NOTHING WAS DONE.

Noble, Weille and Savage, met last night at Architect Lassiter's office, but did nothing except adjourn until Monday, owing to the absence of Trustees Lang and Perryman. Architect Lassiter has been to Cincinnati, Louisville, Covington and Newport to get pointers about library buildings.

EXPERT AS CABINET-MAKER.

Young Woman of Minneapolis Handles the Plane and Saw.

Minneapolis has a successful cabinet-maker in the person of Miss Helen Heisser, whose work is equal in point of excellence to that of any of her masculine competitors. She has set up her bench in her own apartments and there she may be found any day fashioning some artistic piece of work out of the rough boards which she procures from a neighboring lumber yard. Miss Heisser is her own designer and her work not only shows excellent workmanship, but originality along lines that are soundly artistic. Her work has ranged from an ordinary kitchen shelf to the finest kind of delicately wrought little mahogany boxes and chests of drawers. The young cabinet-maker has had no assistance, and the transformation from rough boards to the polished and carved work is accomplished wholly by hand tools. Woods are bought in rough boards and Miss Heisser even does her own veneering. The finest piece of work turned out last fall is a tiny mahogany chest of drawers four inches in height and five and a half inches in width. This miniature piece of furniture is for a man's writing table and intended for small articles of dress—pins, studs, cuff links and collar buttons. Quite in contrast to this is a heavy, solid dark walnut reading table with a sloping top on which to rest heavy books. A substantial bench belongs with this table. A large and handsome piece of work is a screen six feet in height in three panels. This was carved and stained green. Some of the finest carving has been done on boxes and jewel cases, but book racks also afford an opportunity for carving and work in color. Until this fall she has been occupied chiefly in teaching. She took the manual training course at the central high school and followed this by a course in kindergarten. While in school she executed several good pieces of construction work and wood-carving, following designs made by her sister, Miss Margaret E. Heisser, art teacher at the Moorhead normal school and formerly a leader of the Minneapolis art colony. For nearly two years Miss Helen Heisser taught manual training at the school for the feeble-minded at Fairbault, giving up that work last summer.—Chicago Chronicle.

More Than Their Face Value.

The human body of average weight contains three pounds thirteen ounces of calcium. Calcium, at present market rates is worth $300 an ounce, so that amount of it contained in one human body has a money value of $18,300. Few of our fellow-citizens realize that they are worth so much intrinsically.

In the cathedral of Hereford, England, there are still about 1,500 books with the chains that used to be attached to books in the sixteenth century in ecclesiastic and university libraries.

IN THE THEATRICAL WORLD

Coming attractions at The Kentucky; Tuesday night, Lincoln J. Carter's "Two Little Waifs." Thursday night, Retura engagement of "The Village Parson." Saturday matinee and night, "Hello Bill." Monday night, "Adelaide Thurston in 'Sweet Clover.'" Tuesday night, Jessie Bartlett Davis. Friday night, Gus Sun's minstrels.

Miss Jessie Bartlett Davis, at The Kentucky Tuesday night, April 1.

"Two Little Waifs," Lincoln J. Carter's latest triumph, is conceded to be the prettiest scenic accomplishment, and greatest dramatic effort that has ever emanated from that versatile author's brain. The story is interesting from the rise to the fall of the curtain without a single dull moment. The cast is probably the best that has ever been under Mr. Carter's management. Prominent in the production are the tiny Lamb children, who have gained an enviable reputation throughout the entire country, and give a sweet, delicate touch of nature to their parts. The scenery and accessories are the best and most complete equipment ever handled with an attraction of this kind.

The parts of "Harry and Grace Fleming" in "Two Little Waifs" which comes to The Kentucky Tuesday night, were written especially for Stanley and Lolita Lamb, the two children who are playing the two little waifs in Lincoln J. Carter's latest production, and will be seen together with an excellent company. Beautiful and appropriate souvenirs will be given to the ladies at every performance.

"The Village Parson," aims high and aims true to its work. It certainly contains all the elements of success. The piece is not only a well told story wherein human emotions and sympathies are strongly portrayed but the play has a high moral tone, that should commend it to the most sensitive theatergoer. The play has been sealed with approval stamped upon it by both press and public and contains intense heart interest and the story is good and pure, leaving a lasting and decidedly favorable impression everywhere presented. The mounting is new and beautiful. The company will be found a most capable one in every respect. "The Village Parson" will be seen at The Kentucky in special return engagement Thursday night.

The newest offering in the line of farcical comedy is Willis Maxwell Goodhue's joyful oddity, "Hello Bill." All the new, radiant, and progressive and the one object is to give enjoyment. Everything conducive to a new laugh has been woven into this hodge-podge of merriment, and the result is a performance hilarious and entertaining to the highest degree. The company engaged in its production is accounted the greatest gathering of fair-actors ever seen in an organization of its kind, the male contingent including such well known names as Thomas J. Grady, Warren W. Ashley, O. Kane Hillis, Hugo Goldsmith, John G. Edwards, and Robert Watt, while the bevy of handsome and talented young women, includes the Misses Ruth Holt, Eleanor Lawson, Justina Wayne, Carolyn Allen Lee, and Marion Kirby. "Hello Bill" is quite sure to demand its share of public favor when it comes to The Kentucky next Saturday matinee and night.

Some press notices regarding Mr. Ralph Dunbar violoncello soloist with Jessie Bartlett Davis Concert Co.:

Omaha, Neb., World-Herald—Ralph Dunbar is a polished musician. His playing at last night's concert was admirable, and several encores were demanded. Daily Evening News, El Paso, Texas—Ralph Dunbar is truly a master of the violoncello and has won a warm place in the affections of the musical people of this community. Colorado Springs Gazette—In listening to the playing of Ralph Dunbar, the cellist, one realizes why he bears such flattering endorsements from the press and critics throughout the country. The two solos he rendered last evening were enthusiastically received. Owensboro, Ky., Messenger—Ralph Dunbar, in his 'cello solos, displayed a finished technique and a deep musical temperament.

Miss Flora Mae Clark, Lillian Lancaster, received many complimentary notices in papers of Southwest Kentucky and Tennessee, where "Quo Vadis" was played after its engagement here.

Seats will go on sale Thursday for Jessie Bartlett Davis Concert Co. and all holders of tickets purchased from the ladies in charge of the affair can be exchanged at the box office for reserved seats on that day.

The career of little Miss Thurston, who is familiar to the great majority of playgoers as the popular Lady Babbie in "The Little Minister," and who is to be seen here next Monday in a new play, "Sweet Clover," reads more smoothly than the majority of young women who achieve prominence on the stage. She made her debut five years ago as Carey Preston in "Alabama," and subsequently appeared with considerable success as Bessie in "A Texas Steer." Then followed a year with the stock company at the Grand Opera house, Pittsburgh, and a short time with the stock company at the Star Theater, Buffalo, N. Y. In both of these cities she became a great favorite with the theatergoers, and the fine quality of her performance attracted a very great deal of attention. When Charles Frohman desired to send "The Little Minister" on the road, he was put to considerable trouble to find a suitable actress to succeed Miss Maude Adams. Mr. Frohman had heard of Miss Thurston's excellent work at Pittsburgh and Buffalo, and had sent one of his stage managers to the former city to arrange with her to appear in "The Little Minister." A good deal has been heard of the young actress who was appearing in "The Little Minister" company. That Miss Thurston gave abundant satisfaction when featured by Mr. Frohman in "The Little Minister" is evidenced by the fact that the business of the company which she headed was of huge proportions in every city where she appeared. Last season Miss Thurston was the Madge Chisholm with Mrs. Le Moyne in "The Greatest Thing in the World."

When winter mounts and rides away
(God speed thee hence, Sir Winter.)
The waters are again alive,
The doughty little birds arrive.
(Pray turn not, Master Winter.)
'Tis time for youth to sing, to sing,
And lightly on the soft earth spring.
(Beseech thee haste, Dame Flora.)
And to the good warm sun who charms
The bitter airs, upling his arms.
(Haste, haste thee, beautiful Flora.)

APROPOS OF WEDDINGS.

If "all the world loves a lover," surely "wedding talk" is a potion to arouse the most languid interest and speed on the most dragging conversation. And in view of so many being promised to Paducah society for the coming weeks between Easter and June, some things in regard to the up-to-date wedding may not be out of place here.

It is said the fashionable wedding of the spring will be an afternoon affair, and 4 o'clock is the hour. The fact that the bridal party shows to better advantage by daylight than by electricity is causing the night weddings to be relegated to disuse. The bridal attendants now leave the church as they entered it, bridesmaids with bridesmaids and the groomsmen bringing up the rear, a stalwart guard. If you are strictly eastern, you have your "best girl" now, instead of the old time maid of honor. Instead of the usual "shower bouquets," the bridesmaids are carrying baskets of flowers, tied with large bows of ribbon the shade of the prevailing wedding color. Silver and glass are no longer the exclusive wedding gifts; pieces of furniture and handsome editions of books are becoming more popular. Souvenirs from the bride and groom to the attendants are very handsome gifts in all large city weddings. The bride's table at the reception following the ceremony has lately been done away with at some fashionable Chicago and New York weddings, a prettily arranged refreshment table and small tables taking the place. Two recent weddings distinguished by some pretty and novel ideas are thus described:

"The Florodora craze that has taken possession of society during the past six months found its way into a Chicago wedding recently.
"It was an afternoon ceremonial, and the bridesmaids wore white net gowns, with large black Florodora hats, and carried round bouquets of ferns.
"In Chicago a daisy wedding was prettily carried out, when Miss Margaret Potter, the author of 'The House of DeMilly,' 'The Social Lion' and other books, was married. The decorations were entirely in daisies, and the two little pages who preceded pearl."

The etiquette governing the guests—invited or uninvited—leaving the church after the ceremony, is still the same, that which is demanded by good form and decent politeness, remaining quietly seated until not only the bridal party, but the family and "white ribbon guests" have gotten well out. To rise and rush out on one's own not only endangers the bride and bridesmaids' pretty gowns—and incidentally their lives—but separates the bridal party, and delays the wedding feast, often planned to catch the train that waits for no one. To act otherwise is indicative not only of a lack of repose and knowledge as to "what's what," but a lack of thought for others, and is a trifle too suggestive of a football rush to be condoned, by polite society in this place; besides it is apt to frighten strangers from places not used to such violent display of emotions and curiosity.

DR. AND MRS.

EUBANKS ENTERTAIN.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Eubanks entertained very charmingly at cards on Friday evening at their pretty home at Fourth and Madison in honor of Miss Earle Pugh of St. Louis. The ladies' prize, a dainty Wedgewood plaque, was won by Mrs. Mark Worde. Dr. C. E. Whitesides captured the gentleman's prize, a handsome gold stamp box. For the consolation prize, a pretty piece of bric-a-brac, Mrs. C. E. Whitesides and Mr. Harry McElwee tied, and Mrs. Whitesides was the fortunate winner. The color scheme of white and pink was beautifully emphasized in the decorations and throughout the delightful course luncheon served during the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Eubanks' guests were: Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitesides, Messrs. and Mesdames Mark Worde, Harry McElwee, George Wearan, Mesdames John E. Watson, Ethel Myers, Gus Tate, Frank Daugherty, of Louisville, Robert Seviens of Louisville, Miss Earle Pugh, of St. Louis, Miss Betty Wearan, Messrs. Wallace Weil, James Campbell, Jr., Harris Wearan, Dr. Hildreth.

"MAGAZINE CLUB MEETING.

Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips was the hostess of the Magazine club on Thursday afternoon, and the meeting was an especially charming one. Mrs. Campbell Flournoy reported very delightfully from Elbert Hubbard's "Little Journey to the Home of Leonardo de Vinci." Miss Mattie Fowler told very interestingly an article from the Forum on "The Educational Value of World's Fairs." Mrs. George Flournoy gave a graphic account of "Some Sanctuaries in the Pennine Alps."

At the conclusion of these reports a delightful two-course luncheon was served with Mrs. Phillips' usual attention to detail and artistic beauty. The color scheme of yellow was effect-

North Sixth street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Melitta Friedman, to Mr. Ben J. Levy of Sioux City, Iowa.

Miss Friedman is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Friedman, and is an attractive and popular young lady, having many friends in her native town to give her good wishes.

Mr. Levy travels for a large Chicago shirtwaist house, and is a popular and active young business man.

There will be a reception at the Friedman home Sunday from 8 to 11 p. m., in celebration of the betrothal.

A PING-PONG PARTY.

Paducah society is at last to be introduced to a game that has bewitched people elsewhere, and of which we have heard and read. Mrs. Victor Voris will give a ping-pong party in the near future, and those who are beginning to tire of quietude can busy themselves with the thought of this pleasure in store. Mrs. Voris is especially bright and clever, and her entertainments are distinguished for their originality and charm. She will be certain to place ping-pong in its most alluring setting, and her fortunate guests will realize why the game has been made such a fad of the hour.

DELPHIC CLUB MEETING.

The Delphic club met with Mrs. Frank L. Scott on Tuesday morning and a charming discussion of Goethe's writings was enjoyed. Miss Lucy Robison gave an able "Review of Wilhelm Meister," dealing especially with its philosophy and characters. Mrs. James A. Rudy considered most interestingly "The Autobiographical Nature of Goethe's Writings." Some delightful selections from "Hermann and Dorothea" were read by Mrs. Lillard Sanders.

THE MISSES RUCKER

ENTERTAIN.

Miss Grace Rucker and Miss Lillian Rucker were the hostesses of a pretty card party on Monday evening at their home on West Jackson street. The evening was most pleasantly spent in the game, at the conclusion of which delightful refreshments were served.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Northcott, Misses Laura Hudson, Cora Hudson, Messrs. Frank Barger, Gid. Walcott, Frank Gresham, James Hollingsworth, Jack Rucker.

DELPHIC CLUB ENTERTAINED.

Miss Jennie Young entertained the Delphic club very charmingly at her home on West Broadway on Thursday evening. Progressive dominoes was played, and it was a most pleasant occasion. A delightful lunch was served during the evening in a most attractive style.

The guests included: Messrs. and Mesdames Gus Edwards, Robert Martin, Robert Baker, Misses Lillie Morrison, Clara Moore, Jessie Byrd, Flora Davidson, Messrs. Will Crow, Claude Baker, O. L. Ward, Hume Ogilvie.

MARRIED LADIES'

EUCHRE CLUB.

The Married Ladies' Euchre club was most delightfully entertained by Mrs. Frank Wahl on Tuesday afternoon. The club prize went to Mrs. Wahl and the consolation prize to Mrs. Sam Goodman. Mrs. Goodman was made a member of the club. An attractive luncheon was served after the game by the hostess.

MUSICAL CLUB MEETING.

The Musical club met in the lecture room of the Cumberland Presbyterian church Monday evening, and a most pleasant and interesting program was enjoyed with "Living Composers," for the central theme.

ABOUT PEOLPE.

Mrs. Henry Burnett and daughter, Miss Susanne, of Louisville, are visiting Mrs. Muscoe Burnett of West Broadway this week.

Mrs. George C. Wallace and daughter, Miss Frances Wallace, left this week for Asheville, N. C., where they will remain for some weeks.

Mrs. Hortense Forbes of St. Louis is the guest of her cousin, Miss Anne Reed. Mrs. Forbes is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Hortense Funston of previous visits.

Mr. E. L. Hendrick of this city, who sailed for Europe several weeks ago, accompanied by his daughter, has written of his voyage and safe arrival at Southampton. They will go to Paris from there.

Miss Martha Davis will visit Miss Virginia Lockett in Henderson, Ky., after Easter. Miss Lockett was the charming and popular guest of Miss Davis last fall, and is most pleasantly remembered here.

church wedding and Paducah, Indianapolis, Memphis and other cities were represented in the out-of-town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gould and family will arrive next week from Waco, Texas, to visit Mrs. Elbridge Palmer and the Misses Gould at "The Ferns." Mr. Gould will leave right after Easter for Brooklyn, N. Y., where he has accepted a fine position in the civil engineering corps, but Mrs. Gould and children will remain for a longer visit.

Mrs. George Flournoy has returned from a delightful six weeks' sojourn at New Orleans, Pass Christian, Biloxi and other cities on the Mexican Gulf. She also visited Mrs. Richard Morgan at Gulfport, Miss., and was the guest of honor at numerous entertainments. Her hosts of friends are welcoming her home with pleasure and are rejoiced over her improvement in health.

The March-April number of the Methodist Review, one of the leading publications of the M. E. church, south, contains an able and interesting article on "Some Notable Utterances of Southern Men," by Edwin Mims, M. A., Ph. D., professor of English literature in Trinity college, Durham, N. C. Prof. Mims is a brilliant and graceful writer, and one of the foremost young literary men of the South. Paducah claims him through his marriage, and is accordingly proud of his every success.

West Kentucky was especially honored in last Saturday's edition of the Louisville Times. There was an excellent picture of Miss Sallie Leonard of Eddyville, whom Paducah partly claims and who is now the guest of her brother, Mr. Thomas B. Leonard of Louisville. Another picture was that of Colonel Edward O. Leigh of Paducah, headed "the busiest man in Frankfort," and saying a number of very pleasant and truthful things about this exceedingly popular gentleman whom every one knows and likes.

The marriage of Miss Linda James of Evansville to Mr. Frank Burns, also of that city, has been announced to take place on April 16 at Evansville. It will be a church wedding, and Miss Arnie James, sister of the bride, will be the maid of honor. Miss James is the daughter of Captain and Mrs. E. A. James, formerly of Paducah, and is very popular here, where she often visited. She is related to a number of prominent Paducahans, some of whom will attend the wedding. Her fiancé is a rising young railroad man, connected with the I. C. at Evansville, and they will make that city their future home.

LONDON'S PRIVATE PALACES.

What Their Furnishings Cost—$100,000 to Decorate Single Rooms.
The recent sale of Battle Abbey for £200,000—a figure at which the property is considered almost ruinously cheap—gives some small idea of the vast sums that may be expended on one's domicile. Eaton Hall, the duke of Westminster's Cheshire seat, cost the late holder of the title considerably over a million sterling to build, and probably even this figure would go only a very small way toward purchasing any one of the same score of London houses as they stand.

Perhaps none of these palaces strike the visitor with a vivid sense of their wealth more than do Spencer house, in Arlington street, and Norfolk house, in St. James' square. Stafford house, St. James' palace, the largest of them by far, contains probably more money's worth than any of the others, but it is not so lavishly decorated.

With regard to the bedrooms, £700 apiece may be paid for some of the suites, and £100 for the beds. These figures are by no means fancy prices that it would be difficult to spend.

One may discover that for a single bedroom without any history or age to enhance its value the sum of £500 may be paid; for a suite to accompany it another £250; for a carpet for the dining room £750; for curtains for the same room £12 a yard; on fireplace and mantelpiece £300 may be laid out; the tapestry and carved paneling with which to clothe the walls will cost £100 per panel, and the ceiling, if a Whistler or a Sargent decorates it, will run away with £2,000. Altogether, one may invest £11,170 on the dining-room—one of the cheapest apartments in the house. The mere mural decorations in the grand drawing-room will cost more, and its other appointments four or five times as much. Then there will be three or four smaller drawing-rooms, boudoirs, and music-rooms to furnish at a proportionate cost; a morning room or two, which will cost a mere £10,000 apiece; a library, that cannot very well be furnished in keeping with the rest for less than £12,000, including books.

"Honest toil is holy service; faithful work is prayer and praise.—Van Dyke.

A STEP FORWARD.

The bill making Paducah a second class city has been signed by the governor, and is now a law. It contains an emergency clause, and is therefore effective at once. Paducah is consequently a second class city today, and we are governed by the second class charter. It is impossible to determine at this time how many or important will be the changes under this charter. A number of present city officials are holding offices that are abolished by the second class charter, but how long they may hold them is a question about which there seems to be some little doubt. It is supposed that a man's term of office cannot be abridged; but, on the other hand, it is alleged that the creative power has the same right to abolish it had to create, and as representatives of the people, who are supreme, the legislature may have a right to thus deprive some officials of their places.

It is practically certain, however, that there will be an election next year of all city officials provided for under the second class charter. This is the year in which cities of the second class, under the constitution, are required to hold elections, and every four years thereafter. This will necessitate the election of a new mayor and council, and other officials. Mayor Yeiser will not be eligible for re-election, as the two years he will have served will constitute a term, and he cannot serve more than one successive term.

There is much gratification expressed on all sides that Paducah has entered the second class. It is impossible to weigh the advantages and disadvantages and determine their relative value, but it seems to be the general impression that in the long run, and after we have adjusted ourselves to the change of charter, Paducah will be greatly benefited. Paducah is the coming city of the state, and we should all be proud of her progress. The Sun is gratified to see her enter the second class, especially as the move was surreptitiously opposed by some of the present gang of office holders who suspected that their reign would be cut short under the change of charter, and who thought more of their own interests than those of the people, and fought the step forward.

Politicians are already beginning to talk of the candidates for mayor next year, and a number of names are mentioned. Mayor Yeiser, when asked this morning what he thought about having to give up two years of the term for which he was elected, stated that he knew nothing about it, but intimated that he was not sure he would have to do anything of the kind.

The Sun does not claim all the credit for having placed Paducah in the second class. We did not oppose it, but have exposed the work of some of the men supported by local organs in their race for office, who persistently fought the second class move, through selfish motives.

This section of the country is be-terprise, while it has been largely of outside capital, has greatly benefited the public by providing it with great conveniences, and increased commerce by enabling business to be transacted quicker, and consequently in greater volume. The people should be proud to see such enterprises and accord them a liberal support. The latest facility to be contemplated is the establishment of direct connection with Smithland, Ky., which will open up to the merchants and others, an entirely new territory.

The American Tobacco trust has taken one fall out of the British octopus and is patiently awaiting another chance at her. The English trust offered large bonuses to customers who would contract not to sell American goods, and the American trust promptly announced that it will give to its customers the net profits for the next four years and 200,000 pounds annually. The business of the American concerns amounted to about $965,000 last year, and the bonuses that will be distributed will no doubt be very large. All England is amazed at the aggressive, invincible stand of the American company has taken, and it is predicted the English syndicate and its attempted boycott will not hold.

It is noticed that the opposition to the bill designed to protect the head and sovereignty of the government from assault or assassins is mostly from the rabid Democrats who have in past years by their utterances encouraged and incited bad men to violent deeds. Our presidents need to be protected. This has three times been demonstrated in history, and any legitimate means to accomplish the necessary protection should be approved by good men of all parties.

The first action of this government toward's retaliation for Germany's prohibition of importation of meats containing boracic acid will be in barring all products from other countries supposed to contain this acid. The secretary of agriculture has asked the department chemist to at once make out a list containing the goods that will be outlawed by the order, and when this is issued, invoices for such goods will be declared by the United States consuls as "seaworthy."

General Miles threatens to resign his commission as lieutenant general if congress passes the bill providing for a general staff for the army. General Miles wants to be the whole thing. It is hoped that in his seniors' opposition to the measure General Miles really has at heart the interests of the army and not merely the gratification of his own vanity. General Miles is a small man but he is also some smart men in congress.

It must be jolly nice to be a member of parliament. When the members fall out they have only to tell each other what they think in the most picturesque language possible, and then "withdraw" the remarks. They are thus enabled to unbuckle their tongues without fear of getting "tipped."

Watch them try to merge the offices of prosecuting attorney and city attorney. It will be a fight for public printing, and it is hoped it will be to a finish. If the city attorney remains unmolested, one paper will have a cinch on the public printing, and if he is deposed, the other one will get it.

The noise is going down all around to the rivers and brooks here. This is a good idea. The Democrats

PRINCELY CADETS.

Young Indian Chiefs and Nobles Who Have Joined the New Corps.

Thus far seventeen young chiefs and nobles have joined the Imperial cadet corps, which was established in India a short while ago. Of these, thirteen come from Rajputana and the central states, two from the Bombay presidency, one from the Punjab, and one from Hyderabad. Four are ruling chiefs. The others are sons of princely or aristocratic families, most of whom have been educated at the various chiefs' colleges. It is the purpose of the viceroy to modify, in some degree, the curriculum at these institutions, in order that the pupils may be better qualified for the duties which they will have to perform hereafter as cadets, and later in staff positions in the Anglo-Indian army. A winter camp for the corps has been arranged at Meerut, and the first course of instruction will be given there. The government will provide each cadet with a charger. The number of horses and ponies and personal attendants for each cadet has been narrowly limited. Living in camp will be simple and the discipline strict. The closest attention will be paid to caste rules. The entire course of instruction, which will combine drill, riding and military exercises, with suitable indoor instruction, will be so designed as to enable the pick of the cadets in time to take their places as British officers, while never losing the character and bearing of Indian gentlemen. When on duty and during instruction the cadets will wear a simple uniform. On ceremonial or state occasions they will wear a state uniform, for which special designs are to be made. Probably the cadets will soon be inspected by the viceroy, and they will form a conspicuous feature in his escort at the proclamation durbar at Delhi on January 1, 1903. The result of this attempt to bring the British and native divisions of the Anglo-Indian army into close relationship will be watched with interest.—New York Post.

Maine Heavers Dam a River.

The biggest beaver dam ever seen in Maine is now attracting hundreds of people to Caribou, on the Aroostook river. Two miles from the village the beavers have built a dam of logs and mud 250 feet long, turning the river back upon the lowlands for a distance of three miles and thus creating a great lake. Trees a foot in diameter have been cut down by the beavers, the branches trimmed off and the trunks in some mysterious manner brought to the dam and submerged. The dam is better than many on the river that have been built by men, and the Caribou people are rather proud of it. Over 1,000 beavers have worked

HARBOUR'S,

ROAD WITHOUT CURVES.

For Forty-Five Miles Kharthoum Railway Runs in Bee Line.

The Kharthoum line leaves Wadi Halfa and goes in a southwesterly direction through the Nubian desert to Abu Hamed, which is 230 miles from Wadi Halfa. The whole of this part of the country is a flat, sandy desert, occasionally a few hills are seen, but seldom exceed 300 feet in height, and most of them are only from 80 feet to 100 feet above the surrounding country. Some idea of the extraordinary flatness of the country, says Engineering, may be gathered from the fact that it was possible to lay a piece of line forty-five miles long without a single curve in it, and without any cuttings or embankments worthy of the name. It very rarely rains at all in this part of the desert, and when it does very little seems to fall at a time. There are no streams or surface water of any sort. Water was found in two places between Wadi Halfa and Abu Hamed by sinking wells; one place was seventy-seven miles from Wadi Halfa and the other was 126 miles from Halfa. Water was found at the former place at a depth of seventy-two feet and at the latter place at a depth of ninety-six feet. Several other places have been tried, but so far no water has been found.—St. James Budget.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A suit was filed this afternoon by Annie Hobbs against Leonard Hobbs, her husband, for divorce and the custody of their two infant children. She gives abandonment her grounds for the action.

—Office: Tom Evitts says that several cases have come to his notice lately where dogs have been mistreated with "cediki" and turpentine, and that hereafter he will get warrants for all those who are guilty of thus causing the animals suffering. He was yesterday called to kill an animal that was only suffering from "cediki."

The City of Cebu.

The city of Cebu has something like 200,000 inhabitants, but this population is largely made up of people who are huddled together in native huts. They live year in and year out on rice and corn. There is no hunting, but thousands of small fish, less than six inches long, are caught and dried for local consumption.

THE RED MEN.

They Will Begin a Membership Contest at Once.

Last Night at a Big Meeting Deputy Great Sachem Crader Spoke.

The Red Men held an interesting meeting last night and the attendance was the largest in some time.

Mr. W. A. Crader, of Louisville, Deputy Great Sachem of the tribe, spoke and his address was one of the best ever heard. He was here to pay the local tribe a visit. Last night it was decided to cut the local tribe in two, one-half under the leadership of D. C. E. Whitesides and the other side under the leadership of Mr. Harry Rhodes, of the Rhodes-Barford furniture company. The object of the division is to secure new members to the tribe, each side working for the greatest number during the next month and the one securing the smallest number will have to wait on the victorious side at a big banquet to be held the latter part of the month. This will arouse interest in the membership campaign and both sides will work hard for victory.

This lodge is one of the most popular in existence and already has two tribes in the Philippines.

FEAST OF PURIM

Commemorative Services To Begin at Temple Israel Tomorrow.

An Elaborate Program Has Been Prepared For the Occasion.

The Feast of Purim on the fourteenth of Adar commemorates the rescue of the Jews of Persia from the plot of destruction laid against them by Haman, the prime minister of Ahasuerus (Xerxes) king of Persia.

Purim signifies lots. Haman had lots cast to decide the day when the Jews of Persia should be killed, but the lots were turned against him. Through Esther, the queen, and her cousin, Mordecai, the plan was defeated, and the day became a day of victory and joy for the Jews, and of woe and doom for his enemies.

Purim service conducted by the children of Temple Israel Sabbath school to be given at Temple tomorrow at 2:30.

REWARD OF MERIT.

A NEW CATARRH CURE SECURES NATIONAL POPULARITY IN LESS THAN ONE YEAR.

Throughout a great nation of eighty million it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition for a new article, to say nothing of achieving popular favor, and yet within one year

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that today it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, but everyone who has used the tablets knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition absolute, undeniable merit, and this the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree.

Physicians who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays and local washes or ointments, now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because, as one of the most prominent states, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, blood root and similar antiseptics.

They contain no cocaine nor opiate, and are given to little children with entire safety and benefit.

Dr. J. J. Reitter of Covington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in my head and throat every fall, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat, affecting my voice and often extending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a 50-cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my druggist's, carried them in my pocket and used them faithfully, and the way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring, and consider myself entirely free from any catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Ellison of Wheeling, W. Va., writes: "I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrhal colds and sore throat so much they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother, who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrh

NATHAN STUBBLEFIELD

MURRAY MAN MAKES A PARTIALLY SUCCESSFUL TEST.

Washington, March 22.—A practical test of wireless telephony over a distance of a third of a mile was conducted on the Potomac river, just above the city today, with partial success. Small instruments were used. A wire was grounded on the shore, and wires from a small boat stationed a third of a mile across the water were dropped over the stern. With the instruments in operation, those who participated in the tests announced that they recognized the sound of a harmonica, though it was partly indistinct, and also heard human voices engaged in counting at the other end. Similar experiments overland were conducted with more satisfactory results. The tests were made under the direction of Nathaniel Stubblefield of Murray, Ky.

UNCLE SAM'S BIG TRADE WITH FRANCE.

Washington, March 22.—The United States stood second on the list of nations from which France purchased her supplies last year, and fourth in the list of purchasers of products of French origin, according to a report from United States consul Thakera at Havre, dated February 20, and made public at the state department today. Last year, it is stated, France imported $93,002,261 worth of goods from Tablets, urged me to try them so much that I did so, and am truly thankful for what they have done for myself and my children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."

Full sized packages of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold for 50 cents at all druggists.

Send for book on cause and cure of catarrh, mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

PROVISIONS OF THE NEW LAW ON THE SUBJECT.

Frankfort, Ky., March 22.—Registered pharmacists and all other dealers in drugs should cut out this provision of the pharmacy bill and preserve it. The law became effective Thursday.

"Cocaine or its salts shall be sold at retail or dispensed only upon the written prescription of a legally qualified physician or dentist, and such prescription shall not be refilled. Each prescription containing cocaine or its salts, filled by a registered pharmacist shall have written upon its face the name of the patient, the date filled and the prescription file of each registered pharmacist shall be open to inspection of members of state board of pharmacy. Cocaine shall be sold at wholesale only to registered pharmacists, and to legally qualified physicians and pharmacists."

Foley's Honey and Tar for children, safe, sure. No opiates.

OPTION ON RICH LAND.

Bardwell, Ky., March 22.—A transaction which has created much interest was the sale by Dr. Thomas Terrell of a thirty days' option on his farm for $20,000. The purchasing capitalists say there is rich mineral on the land, and this is why the interest is chiefly so great in the deal. The farm is said to be not worth over $1,000 for ordinary purposes. There are no explanations as to what will be done with the property or when it may be explored.

Miss Fay Lee

"Your booklet came to my home like a message of health when I had suffered with headache, backache and bearing-down pains. I was weak, nervous and hysterical and had not consulted any doctor, thinking it would pass away in time, but instead I found that the pains increased and were more frequent. I decided to try Wine of Cardui and in a short time was much improved. It seemed to act like a charm. I kept up the treatment and the result was most satisfactory. Words seem to fail me to express my gratitude for the suffering that is now saved me. I am in fine health, physically and mentally. I can only say 'thank you', but there is much more in my heart for you."

BEARING-DOWN pains are the most painful that women know. If you are suffering from this trouble you need not be uncertain about it. The pains in the abdomen and back that feel as if heavy weights were pulling down on the nerves of the stomach are "bearing-down pains". They may not be particularly severe at present but they are growing more and more so.

Miss Fay Lee,
No. 603½ North Seventh Street,
Kansas City.

you distracted now is caused by the terrible nervous tension. The nerves soon begin to give way under the strain. You will jump at every disturbance, or laugh or weep, hysterically, at no apparent cause. That is what Miss Fay Lee, of Kansas City, Kas., was coming to when she rescued herself by taking Wine of Cardui. The Wine made her a strong, healthy woman again, as it has made a million other women strong and healthy. By inducing regular menstruation the entire system of organs are relieved of the terrible wasting drains. The ligaments which hold the womb in place are strengthened by a healthy flow and that organ is returned to its proper and normal position. With regular menstruation the strain is relaxed and returning health is the result. This is what Wine of Cardui has done in thousands of cases.

Miss Margaret Robinson, of Bridges, Ala., was a great sufferer with bearing-down pains but she was cured by Wine of Cardui also. She writes:

"Before using Wine of Cardui I suffered terribly with bearing-down pains. By advice of a friend I used your medicine and now I feel as well as ever I felt in my life."

Mrs. Louisa Carber, of Little Falls, N. Y., writes:

"Your Wine of Cardui has done for me what no doctor or other medicine could do. I suffered for twelve years with bearing-down pains but nothing helped me until I got Wine of Cardui."

Mrs. Mary Keifer, of Noland, Arkansas,

"I have been greatly afflicted with bearing-down pains and flooding, but after using only one bottle of Wine of Cardui the trouble has been corrected and I am in better health than I have been for years."

Mrs. W. L. Daufenschick, of Denwood, Ohio, says:

"I had terrible bearing-down pains and other sufferings. I think it was providential that I found one of your booklets and read of Wine of Cardui, for two bottles of it have cured me. I want to speak a few words of praise for Wine of Cardui. It is a wonderful medicine."

These letters from sufferers who have been raised from beds of dangerous and painful illness by Wine of Cardui are printed for your benefit in this newspaper today and if you do not take advantage of it you will have no one to blame but yourself. Every druggist sells Wine of Cardui and if you secure a bottle you can begin the treatment today.

If you need advice write The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., describing all your symptoms freely, and a letter of advice will be sent you. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from terday Evening Its Action.

A Member of Changes of Minor Importance Made—Decorator Cominer.

OTHER MATTERS OF INTEREST TO ELKS

Messrs. Read and Lagomarsino, of the executive committee, met last night and transacted minor business. Mrs. Whelan, the decorator, has written that she will arrive the second week of April. The home brew contract was last night awarded the Paducah Brewery for furnishing beer at the German Village.

The executive committee desires all local people who desire to bid on concessions to send in their figures at once, as it desires to let contracts as soon as possible. The concessions are: Cigars, soda water, ice cream and candy, peanuts, popcorn, fruit, and crackerjack, confetti, throwing balls at negro heads, ball racks, cane racks, knife racks, rubber and blow balloons, dusting brush for confetti throwers, electric lamps, walking canes and souvenir badges, mustaches, tin horns, whistles and screechers, hokey-pokey ice cream, hand readers, palmists and fortune tellers, lunch stands. Regarding these concessions the committee is receiving many requests from outsiders, but has not yet awarded any privileges.

The queen this year will select her own maids of honor, and they will be from the various cities around, as last year. In the morning the first report of vote for queen will be received.

It was decided by the committee that everybody caught throwing anything but confetti will be vigorously prosecuted.

Mr. Joe Everich will do the bill posting for the carnival, and has already started out, going to Hopkinsville first.

The committee has decided on giving a delightful river outing one day of the carnival, chartering several boats for visitors.

An attraction of the coming carnival that has obtained some prominence and contains many elements to make it a satisfying exhibition is known as Sapho. This exhibition takes place in the dark, as it were, and for its purpose an inky black canvas structure shuts out every ray of light is used. The lady artist impersonates Sapho and her associates of perfect form present a series of refined reproductions of famous artists' work. Such subjects as "The Flight of Mercury," "The Gladiators," "Venus at the Bath," "The Three Graces," "Old Age and Youth," "Diving Girls," "The Summer of Love," and many other high class poses faithfully reproduce the handiwork of the old masters. The fact that they are models is entirely lost sight of by the manner in which the exhibition is given. The artists are provided with long black velvet cloaks lined with white satin and at the proper moment beautiful colored calcium dissolving views are thrown upon the models, while the cloaks are opened, making them really living background for beautiful views from all parts of the world. In connection with this exhibition the latest songs, topical and sentimental, are sung and illustrated by competent vocalists.

The Salt Lake City Reunion club of Louisville lodge of Elks has adopted a uniform which will be used by the lodge at all parades and reunions. The uniform is to be dark blue in color, the fatigue coat being trimmed with dark braid an inch and a half in width. The collar will be of dark braid bearing on each side the letters B. P. O. E. in gold. The cap will be dark blue, and its front will be adorned with an Elk's head in gold and the gold letters B. P. O. E. underneath. The uniform will be first worn at the coming carnival and state reunion.

The club will wear the uniform at the National Elks' Reunion at Salt Lake City. An effort will be made to have the uniform adopted as the official one in Kentucky.

British Captains' Wages.
Of the British steamship lines the captains receive from £300 to £1,200 a year, without perquisites. If, at the end of the year, a British commander's boat has met with no accident he gets a bonus. The British lines think this system of reward has a tendency to make commanders more careful.

Marvelous Elixir of Life Discovered by Famous Doctor-Scientist That Cures Every Known Ailment.

Wonderful Cures Are Effected That Seem Like Miracles Performed—The Secret of Long Life of Olden Times Revived.

THE REMEDY IS FREE TO ALL WHO SEND NAME AND ADDRESS.

After years of patient study and delving into the dusty record of the past, as well as following modern experiments in the realms of medical science, Dr. James W. Kidd, 2431 BALTES BUILDING, Fort Wayne, Ind., makes the startling announcement that he has surely discovered the elixir of life.

DR. JAMES WILLIAM KIDD.

covered the elixir of life. That he is able with the aid of a mysterious compound, known only to himself, produced as a result of the years he has spent in searching for this precious life-giving boon, to cure any and every disease that is known to the human body. There is no doubt of the doctor's earnestness in making his claim, and the remarkable cures that he is daily effecting seem to bear him out very strongly. His theory which he advances is one of reason and based on sound experience in a medical practice of many years. It costs nothing to try his remarkable "Elixir of Life," as he calls it, for he sends it free to any one who is a sufferer, in sufficient quantities to convince of its ability to cure, so there is absolutely no risk to run. Some of the cures cited are very remarkable, and but for reliable witnesses would hardly be credited. The lame have thrown away crutches and walked about after two or three trials of the remedy. The sick, given up by home doctors, have been restored to their families and friends in perfect health. Rheumatism, neuralgia, stomach, heart, liver, kidney, blood and skin diseases and bladder troubles disappear as by magic. Headaches, backaches, nervousness, fevers, consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, catarrh, bronchitis and all affections of the throat lungs, or any vital organs are easily overcome in a space of time that is simply marvelous.

Partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, dropsy, gout, scrofula and piles are quickly and permanently removed. It purifies the entire system, blood and tissues, restores normal nerve power, circulation and a state of perfect health is produced at once. To the doctor all systems are alike, and equality affected by this great "Elixir of Life." Send for the remedy today. It is free to every sufferer. State what you want to be cured of, and the sure remedy for it will be sent you free by return mail.

LIFE OF THE SILKWORM.

It is Inconspicuous in Size, but Leads a Busy Existence.

The silkworm is the larvae of the mulberry-feeding moth, an inconspicuous moth of ashy white wings. The male is not half an inch long, and the female is little longer and stouter. The silkworm is hairless, of an ashen gray or cream color, grows to a length of three to three and a half inches and is slender. Its natural food is the leaves of the mulberry tree. The silk glands or vessels consist of two long sacs running along the sides of the body. When the larva is fully matured and ready to change to the pupa condition, it proceeds to spin its cocoon, in which operation it ejects from both glands at the same time a line or thread about 4,000 yards long, moving its head around in regular order for three days or thereabouts, wrapping itself up completely. The cocoon with the inclosed pupa is egg-shaped, white or yellow in color, an inch to an inch and a half long and half an inch to an inch thick. In two to three weeks after completion of the cocoon, the inclosed insect is ready to escape. It moistens one end of its self-made prison, thereby enabling itself to push aside the fibers and make an opening by which the perfect moth comes forth. The female lays her eggs to the number of 500 or more; and with that, the life cycle of the moth being complete, both sexes soon die.—Detroit Free Press.

Catching Rats.

Rats are very susceptible to the odor of certain drugs, and any ordinary trap set in their haunts is likely to succeed if dressed with these scents, the attraction of which, rat catchers affirm, they cannot resist. An example is: Powdered asafoetida, eight grains; oil of rhodium, two drams; oil of aniseed, one dram; oil of lavender, one-half dram. Shake together in a bottle and use a very small quantity to dress the bait.

To catch rats, cover a common barrel with stiff, stout paper, tying the edge round the barrel. Place a board so that the rats may have easy access to the top. Sprinkle cheese parings or other food for the rats on the paper for several days, until they begin to think that they have a right to their daily rations from this source. Then place in the bottom of the barrel a piece of rock about six or seven inches high, filling with water until only enough of it projects above the water for one rat to lodge upon. Now replace the paper, first cutting a cross in the middle, and the first rat that comes on the barrel top goes through into the water and climbs on the rock. The paper comes back to its original position, and the second rat follows the first. Then begins a fight for the possession of the dry place on the stone, the noise of which attracts the others, who share the same fate.—Baltimore American.

Several days ago he found a lot of small and peculiarly colored eggs on the leaf of a plant. He cut the leaf off the plant and placed it in a bottle, and set it near the fire to warm. Several days elapsed before he noticed any change, and one morning he found to his surprise several grasshoppers, so small that they could hardly be seen, in the bottle in the place of the eggs. There were several eggs left, which were hatched three days later, and now he has a whole bottle full of grasshoppers for pets.
